About El Campesino...

For many years, the Guzman brothers Salvador and Carlos, dreamed to someday own warm and friendly restaurants that would serve authentic Mexican food and bring enjoyment to their patrons.

Having grown up in beautiful Guanajuato, Mexico, the young brothers learned the art of preparing satisfying and flavorful meals from their mother. Who lovingly cooked for ten children by herself, after the early passing of Mr. Guzman.

Which occurred when Carlos, the youngest child, was just a baby.

In 1997 the Guzman brother's dream came true with the opening of El Campesino Restaurante in Dawsonville, GA.

Over the years, customers have come to love the food and service at El Campesino. At our various locations in Dawsonville, Cleveland and Gainesville GA.

We hope the food and setting at El Campesino makes you very comfortable and reminds you of the favorite things you enjoyed at the family table from your childhood.

Our goal is to preserve the traditions of homemade cooking the way Mama and Grandma used to do it.

And that you find everything to be... Muy delicioso!

Ya'll come back soon...
